Provincial Assessment for the Revised Mathematics Grade 3 Program

Presented by: Deanna Wiens via Video Conference

Date: March 16, 2010

Location: Central Elementary School (10309 – 102 Avenue Lac La Biche, Alberta)

Who should attend: Grade 3 Math Teachers

About the workshop:

This half-day session will provide teachers with information about the design and development of the new Mathematics Grade 3 Provincial Achievement Test, which is based on the revised mathematics curriculum. The focus of the new PAT as well as the kinds of questions that will be used to assess students' learning will be discussed. Teachers will have the opportunity to ask questions and to clarify their understanding of the PAT assessment process in mathematics.

About the presenter:

Deanna Wiens is currently the Grade Three Examination Manager for Mathematics and English Language Arts. She has been with the Government of Alberta for the past three years. Previously, she was employed for 18 years with Edmonton Public Schools. She has taught students from Kindergarten to Grade Six but the majority of her career has involved working with Division One children.
