English Language Arts- Planning for Success, Best Practices and Resources for the Knowledge and Employability Course Student

Date: March 15, 2010

Location: J. R. Robson School (5102 – 46 Street Vermilion, Alberta)

Intended Audience: K&E English Teachers, Administrators, Special Education Co-ordinators

About the workshop:

This interactive in-service is intended to provide participants with the knowledge and skills to implement the Knowledge and Employability ELA Curriculum in their classroom.

Participants will:

- Receive and understanding and appreciation of K&E and K&E: ELA
- Learn about the K&E studio and other resources as tools for ELA
- Learn about similarities between K&E and the regular program
- Learn about Assessment for Learning and the K&E student
- Identify best practices when working with K&E students
- Learn about differentiated instruction strategies for K&E ELA

About the presenter:

Kerry Tennant is a Lead English Language Arts teacher for the province. He brings with him considerable classroom experience in K&E ELA as well as numerous other K&E subject areas. Kerry has been teaching IOP / K&E for the past 13 years. He is currently teaching at Lindsay Thurber High School in Red Deer, Alberta. Other professional involvement includes 11 years as his schools CSR rep, as well as several years' work developing, verifying, and standard setting K&E PAT exams. Kerry also presented at the 2008 K&E Symposium in Edmonton.
