Program

Shelley will take us through the basics of Inclusive Education and help us to truly understand what that "looks like" in our schools and classrooms. The transformation of Inclusive Education will better prepare us to make that "1 - 10 Split" that we are faced with daily - How to reach every child in the classroom?

This learning opportunity is being offered through a grant from Alberta Education.

Presenters

Shelley Moore

Originally from Edmonton, and now based in Vancouver, British Columbia, Shelley Moore is a highly sought-after teacher, researcher, speaker and storyteller and has worked with school districts and community organizations throughout both Canada and the United States. Shelley's presentations are constructed based on contexts of schools and communities and integrate theory and effective practices of inclusion, special education, curriculum and teacher professional development. Her first book entitled, "One Without the Other" was released in July 2016 to follow up her TEDx talk. Shelley completed an undergraduate degree in Special Education at the University of Alberta, her masters at Simon Fraser University, and is currently a PhD candidate at the University of British Columbia.
