Angele Morrison

Angele Morrison is the Division Career Counsellor for St. Paul Education Regional Division #1. Angele graduated with a degree in psychology and pursued more education in career and academic advising. Over the past 6 years, she has worked with junior and senior high school students to achieve success in school and to develop post-high school plans. Many students get overwhelmed with the thought of graduating and what their next step will be. This is where Angele can help! She is passionate about career development and working with youth in our community to find their own path.
